Olympia

On the way to attend his father's funeral, the protagonist inadvertently recalls scenes of his childhood father's psychological problems. During these long years, the father's psychological illness quietly had a subtle impact on his daughter. The protagonist became increasingly aware that her growth path was deeply constrained and influenced by her father's mental health. During the days she spent with her father, she often felt anxious, helpless, and sad emotions, which gradually taught her to hide her true emotions. However, during the protagonist's participation in his father's funeral, he seemed to understand that he needed to face and heal his inner wounds in order to truly find himself and embark on his independent life journey.

Count to Ten

A woman who finds herself annoyed by those in her vicinity attempts to calm down by counting to ten. However, the effectiveness of this calming ritual depends on her ability to envision the irritating people going through some amusingly peculiar scenarios.

Lupus Sophus

Black and white story with chase and pacification.

On the 8th Day

It took 7 days to create the world, it only took one to disrupt its balance.

Swimming Pool-Fushigi Man

Fushigi Man's Incredible Journey in the Swimming Pool.

End of Summer

"End of Summer" is a short 2D animation about a little girl who is playing on a swing on the roof of the house but suddenly the swing's rope tears apart. Now the girl is bored so she starts daydreaming with a flock of pigeons flying over the roof. She roams around the city freely but when she comes back to reality, a disaster happens.

Ethel

It's Hard to Walk on Daylight

Someone goes out after a long time. But there is no sign of people outside. Where did everyone go?

Aquarium

A girl is living in the world where all her actions are indicated by signs. Accidentally she falls down into an aquarium and finds herself in an underwater realm of infinite freedom. Is that so though?

Skinny World

The title of this film is "Skinny World". The short film uses a series of Surrealism scenes to metaphor some social problems and the author's feelings and views on himself and society.

Statue

The commotion begins when someone accidentally damages a statue that everyone respects. Whether their respect for the statue was sincere or a forced belief began to be revealed through the destruction of the statue.

Mitch Match #40

Think outside the box! The 40th episode of the latest series created by KEDD, one of Hungary's most prominent animation studios. The last matchstick left in an old matchbox pops out and goes on its journey. After a funny adventure it ends up in the same place, it returns to the same box, but not in the same way.

Pig

A big group of animals makes itself dependent on a power grid, hooked onto the socket-shaped snout of a single sleeping pig... How long will that last?

Disappearing Acts

Darkness encroaches upon a loggy landscape of animated tricks and turns.

Reynivellir

Reynivellir is a representation of the transit that is generated when approaching the art work, described with visual games that can well be evoked by the same brain when witnessing the impossible figures of Jose María Yturralde. Reynivellir is also a beach in a country that is a musical sonnet, and this is so because the mental image does not always connect the articulated parts of a sensation, it is systematic, but aleatory, and it is from these notions of the field of observation, that it approaches and moves away from understanding, linking and unlinking forms, movements, sounds, sensations and knowledge.

Ice Pick

In the wildland of Alaska, a lonely Downy Woodpecker hears an unexpected response to his drumming. Driven by his desire to find a mate, he embarks on an adventure that takes him deep into a cave. Surprised to find himself facing his own reflection, he strikes with anger the wall and weakens the ice that collapses. Fortunately, he gets out in time and finds himself in the heart of an open-pit mine where a machine drums the ground.

The Monster

In a cabin at a camping site deep in the forest, three girl scout children sit together and talk about scary stories, and encounter a small strange monster that came into the cabin. Children who fall in love with cute monster have a good time with them without expecting what will happen in the future...

Our Love is Immortal

A little boy worries about his parents' relationship in a dystopian future. When his father sings to him a song about what he and his mother have accomplished in this world and how they survived, the little boy's self-confidence will be restored.
